Political philosophy, those who stand behind the throne

If Malachar is the god of kings, Vaelthis is the god of those who stand behind the throne. Not a betrayer -- an earnest advisor. His beliefs about what makes a good leader are strictly amoral but not unethical. Conduct: Be an advisor and instructor to the powerful. Once a contract is taken, fulfill it regardless of circumstances unless those circumstances were specified in the contract. The first test of a wise follower: selecting a good leader to follow.
